"More than once we have heard the wry remark, that 'we ought to try to get that one-eyed general that conducted the Israel campaign to take hold of our forces in South Viet Nam, 'but were we to keep all the restrictions on him that have been imposed on our generals in that theatre of operations. The chief difference as we see it, is that the job done, while we have been fighling a limited war, restricted by various 'don'ts' from the Pentagon brains in Washington. You just can't win that way."

_ Mrs. C. A. Judkins, Corres, -While visiting the Red Spot Fishing Club the week end of August 24th-28th nine members of the Greenwich, Conn. Audubon Society under the leadership of Wm, Bolton Cook, a past president, counted 34 species of birds in this area. Among those listed were the rare Black-backed three toed woodpecker, long eared owl, evening grosbeak, woodcock and white-rumped sandpiper. It was noted that some species noted by William Brewster fifty plus years ago, are now very rare or entirely missing, but others unknown to that ornithologist are now present in this area.

Bertha Lombard was in town over night Monday.

E. Oscar Judkins of No. Anson was overnight guest Monday this week of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Judkins, Barbara Dowland and Amy Day, who have been working for Mr and Mrs. Fred S. Judkins, seturned Monday evening to their NEWRY respective homes in So. Rumford and Bryant Pond so to return to school.

Mrs. Mae Goodrum is transporting the eight school children who attend the Errol School, which opened Tuesday this week. Velzora and Nelson Douglass have returned to Fryeburg Academy this year.

Andre Bernier returned to Stephens High School, Laurie Bernier has gone to Phillips to and Donna, East Greenwich, R. year. attend High School.

to Gorham, N. H. High School, week end. There was heavy traffic through here during the holiday week end, even though the weather was very cold and rainy. Roy C. Tripp. Temperatures ranged from 35 to 41 degrees.

Mrs. Helen Cousineau of Phillass and Mrs Mabel Andrew of end. Pittsfield, Maine, were dinner guests last Thursday of their sistes and husband, Mr. and Mrs.

Richard Williamson is on a teching trip in the Hudson Bay area in Canada with Maurice Kendall of Bethel and others. Mrs. Williamson is visiting her sister in Portland.
